Q: Why isn't the man's cold getting better?

12. M: What do you plan to perform at the party?

W: I haven't decided yet.

M: Do you want to sing or dance?

W: I can neither tell stories nor do magic tricks.

M: I see.

Q: Has the woman decided what to perform at the party yet?

13. (The phone rings.)

W: Hello, Eric. It's me, Natalie. I'm at Fiona's school. The teacher told me our daughter didn't go to school today, so I came here.

I promise I sent her to the school gate this morning; she must have gone somewhere after I left. I can find her neither at home nor at the park. I'm so worried. Oh my! I think I see Fiona coming this way! Call you later!

Q: Where is Fiona?

14. M: I feel stressed out. What can I do?

W: You can do some activities to let out stress.

M: But there are too many activities to choose from. I can't decide what to do.

W: If you like nature, you can try hiking. If you're interested in art, you can try painting. If you like reading, you can try to spend some time in bookstores.

Q: What are the man and woman talking about?

15. B: Mom, when will you go home?

W: I think I won't leave the office until 8 p.m. What's wrong?

W: I'll go home now. Wait for me, honey.
