11. W: Sometimes I go shopping and buy a lot of things I don't really need. What can I do?
M: That's easy. Before you buy anything, stop for a second and think "Do I need it or do I want it?"
Making a shopping list will also help a lot.
W: Thanks for your advice. Maybe after some time, I will make a habit of thinking before buying and save lots of money.

Question: What can we learn from the dialogue?

12. M: How much is this belt?
W: It's five thousand and seven hundred dollars.
M: What!? That's too much.
W: Well, it's handmade and you seldom see this kind of design. This is the last one we have.
M: I'll give you five thousand.
W: Not possible. How about three hundred dollars off? Can't be lower.
M: OK. I'll take it.

Question: How much does the belt cost the man?

13. W: There is a big sale at the department store. See, lots of low prices! Let's get you some new clothes for the New Year.
B: Oh, that sweater is half price. What do you think, Mom?
W: I don't know. You hate green, don't you? How about this shirt?
B: I have a shirt just like this. How about something else, like this pair of pants?
W: You look tall and thin in the pants, and black is your color.
B: Really? Then I'll buy two pairs.

Question: Which is true about the boy?

14. M: Excuse me, Ma'am. I think I am lost. How do I get to Glory Hotel?
 W: It's just a 20-minute walk, not far from here. See that traffic light there? Walk down this road and turn right at that traffic light.
 M: Okay, I'll turn right.
 W: Then go straight on Berkeley Rd. for 2 blocks and turn left on Mason St.
 M: Just a minute. Let me write this down. Turn right at the traffic light...walk along Berkeley Rd. and turn right on... Mason St.
 W: No, turn left on Mason St.
 W: Now, walk down Mason St. until you see Glory Park. The hotel is across from the park.
 M: Got it. Thank you very much for your help.

W: No sweat. Have a nice day!

Question: What does the man do just before he turns left on Mason St.?

15. W: Hello everyone. My name is Sandy. I would like to welcome all of you to Green Island, Taitung. The bus ride to your hotel will take about fifteen minutes. Now, I want to remind you some important things during the trip. First, don't stand up or even leave your seat when the bus is moving. Second, don't eat or drink when on the bus. Trust me, you are going to fall in love with the small island. This is a beautiful, quiet place where you can relax, sit by the beach, and enjoy great meals. When you walk along the beach, do not swim here. This is not a safe place to swim. Spend some time listening to the sound of wave, admiring the sunrise, or watching stars when you soak in the famous Zhaori Hot Spring.

Question: What is the main idea of Sandy's talk?
