11. (W) Excuse me, may I take a look at the sweater over there? This black one is too big for my dad, and I think the color isn't fine. No one can see him when he walks or rides the bicycle at night.

(M) How tall is your dad?

(W) He is 165 centimeters tall, and he is thinner than I am.

(M) OK. He will look better in the blue one, but it is a lot more expensive.

(W) That's fine. Money is less important than safety. I'll take two.

Question: Why does the woman decide to buy the blue sweater?

12. (M) Tracy, this is Tim. Listen. I saved a young boy at the beach and took him to the hospital, so I forgot to call you. Sorry to keep you waiting in the restaurant all night.

(W) Tim, it's OK that you were busy, but you needed to tell me first. That was not the first time.

(M) Listen to me. I really want to do something for you. Please go to Blue Bridge Cafe at 10 a.m. tomorrow. I'll wait for you there.

Question: Which is true about the man?

13. (M) Hi, Ms. Lin. What would you like today?

(W) I want some grapes and tomatoes, but the tomatoes don't look good. Do you have better ones?

(M) That's the last bag. How about one hundred dollars for the grapes and all the tomatoes?

(W) That's not bad, but do the tomatoes really taste good?

(M) Of course. They are the best in the market.

(W) OK, I will take them all. Hum, Wait! I also need two apples.

(M) No problem. Fifty dollars for two apples.

(W) OK. Here is the cash.

Question: How much does the woman pay for her fruit in total?

14. (M) Welcome back, Lydia. How was your stay on the ship?

(W) Everything was good, but not the meat. The color of the meat looked strange, and the cook told me it was lab meat. I didn't think it was delicious when I tried some.

(M) I see. And anything else?

(W) The ship was comfortable, and the sea was very beautiful.

(M) Wow! It looks like you had a wonderful trip on the sea.

(W) Not bad. I also met my old friend, Dora. She taught me ways to keep healthy.

Question: What can we know about the woman's trip?

15. (M) More and more people would like to visit Kiki Island. There are three hotels for them to stay during their trip. Season Hotel and City Hotel are cheaper than Park Hotel, but they are both far away from the beach. It takes only two minutes to walk from Park Hotel to the beach, but it is the most expensive. Is Park Hotel the best? Not really. Unlike the other two hotels, it doesn't provide free breakfast.

Question: Which is true about Park Hotel?
