11. Kevin just got into a nice senior high school. He is surprised to find that there are so many clubs to choose from. If he joins the English club, he will have a chance to learn more about this language. If he joins the cooking club, he may learn how to bake a cake. The badminton club sounds interesting, too. He has always loved playing badminton. Kevin wants to join all of these clubs, but then he will not have time to study. After thinking for a long time, Kevin decided to join the gardening club. His best friend, James, asked him why, and Kevin said, "Well, I want to learn how to grow roses. And more girls will like me if I know how to take care of plants."

Question: Which is true about Kevin?

12. G: Hi Ray. Why are you taking bags of clothes?
B: I'm going to give out these old but clean clothes.
G: To whom?

B: To some poor people who can't buy new clothes for their children.

G: That sounds wonderful! I'll ask my mom if we have any nice clothes to give out.

Question: Who will the boy give out his clothes to?

13. W: Hello everyone, my name is Tina, a volunteer teacher at A.B.C for Every Kid Program. It is a program that gives people chances to teach children English. Each year, many teachers and I visit every corner of Taiwan. We've been to schools in the mountains. We also brought many English storybooks as gifts to kids who live far away from school or city libraries. If you want to have great experience in teaching English, and at the same time help these kids, welcome to join us.

Question: Which is true?

14. W: I am Connie. I met my Net friend at a fast food restaurant. I was a little afraid because this was the first time I met someone I knew through the Net. I didn't even know what the man looks like. I only knew he was an interesting man who enjoys telling jokes, writing, and singing. My classmates Louis and Gibson even told me not to go! I got to the restaurant at 11:00, thirty minutes earlier than our date, and waited nervously for my net friend. Suddenly, one man who surprised me appeared! Wasn't that my brother, Patrick? He was my Net friend! I've never known he is such a man! He told me that he was scared I would be hurt by strangers, so he made friends with me on the Net. I was too surprised to say anything at first, but later we had a great time talking about music, movies, and basketball which are my favorite subjects.

Question: What is true?

15. M: When I was twenty, I looked for information in the library, borrowed books from the library, and met my girlfriend in the library. When I was twenty, I paid my bills in the bank, waited in a long line, and felt a little angry. When I was twenty, I shopped for clothes and shoes in department stores. It was so much fun.

 Now I'm forty. I surf the Net for information. I read E-books online. I meet different people online. Now I'm forty. I pay my bills online. I don't have to wait. I feel easy. Now I'm forty. I do online shopping for shirts, socks, and shoes. It is fun, too.
 However, I'm not very excited about it. There is something wrong.
 I don't have much chance to meet people face to face, seeing their smiles and their appearance. I feel a little down.
