Have you heard of World Oceans Day? It _____ (45) _____ June 8th every year and is like a special birthday party for the oceans. It's a day when people all around the world come together to celebrate how wonderful our oceans are and learn how to take care of them. _____ (46) _____ the oceans as big playgrounds filled with all kinds of amazing creatures, like colorful fish, playful dolphins, and cute sea turtles!

But did you know that _____ (47) _____? Things like plastic pollution, overfishing, and climate change are hurting the oceans and the creatures that live in them. That's why World Oceans Day is so important. It's a chance for us to learn about how we can help protect the oceans and keep them healthy and happy.

There are lots of ways we can help. We can start by _____ (48) _____, like straws and plastic bags, and using reusable water bottles instead. We can also join beach cleanups to pick up trash and keep our shores clean. Also, we can learn about how our actions, like using too much water or littering, can affect the oceans and try to make better choices.

World Oceans Day is a time for us to come together as ocean heroes and make a difference for the oceans and all the creatures that live in them. _____ (49) _____ let's celebrate the wonders of the ocean and promise to be good servers of our blue planet!

Tornadoes are like the superheroes of the sky, turning around with unbelievable speed and power. But unlike superheroes, tornadoes can be very scary. A tornado is a circling column of air that reaches down from a storm cloud to the ground. It's like a giant vacuum cleaner sucking up everything in its path! Tornadoes can be big or small, and they often come with thunderstorms.

Tornadoes usually form in a place called "Tornado Alley," which is in the middle of the United States. That's where warm air from the south meets cool air from the north, creating the perfect conditions for tornadoes to turn around.

When a tornado comes, it can be very dangerous. It can knock down trees, lift up cars, and even destroy buildings. That's why it's important to stay safe and listen to grown-ups when they say to go to a safe place during a tornado warning.

Scientists use special tools, like radars and satellites, to keep an eye on tornadoes and warn people when they're coming. That way, everyone can stay safe and sound.

column 圓柱 vacuum 真空 condition 狀態 satellite 衛星

50. Which picture best shows the image of a tornado?

(A)

(B)

(C)

(D)

51. What can we know from the reading?

- (A) Tornadoes are superheroes from the sky.
- (B) Visiting the United States, we are sure to see tornadoes.
- (C) During a tornado warning, people should go to a safe place.
- (D) Scientists can use special tools to stop tornadoes from happening.

III.

How do you go to work? If you live near your coworkers, you should think about carpooling. Carpooling happens when a group of people travel together to work or school in one car, usually taking turns driving. For example, one person drives everyone on Monday and someone else drives on Tuesday, and so on. It is a wonderful way for people to share costs, stay away from traffic jam and help cut down the CO2 in the air. In other words, carpooling can be not only environmental friendly but also cost saving. Now, let's go further to talk about more benefits about carpooling:

Benefits to users:

1. Carpooling users can save their money on parking and fuel.
2. They can make better use of their time in the car.
3. They are able to do their part to save the earth.

4. They can make new friends or be connected to other people closely.
5. They can feel more relaxed by driving less often.

Other benefits:

By sharing a ride with one or more people, you can reduce

1. The number of cars on the road
2. The parking needs
3. Accidents on the roads

With so many benefits in carpooling, how to begin carpooling is the next step. There are many carpooling apps and websites that can connect you with the people in your area who are also looking to share a ride. Apps and websites help find people who are going to the same place as you. At the same time, that makes it easy to carpool with others. So, if you need to travel from your home to work on your own every day and the public transportation around you are limited, pick up your phone, download the carpool apps and share a ride with others.

53. Which good point about carpooling is talked about in this reading?
- (A) By carpooling, you can do exercise and become healthier.
- (B) There won't be any road accidents if you carpool with others.
- (C) Sharing a ride in a carpool helps you feel easy.
- (D) You may spend less time on traveling from home to work.
54. Which is NOT a good example of reduce?
- (A) If you want to lose weight, you need to reduce the food you take in.
- (B) With the growing number of students, we have to reduce more teachers to share the work.
- (C) To protect the environment, let's try to reduce the trash in our everyday life.
- (D) All the T-shirts at that clothes store are on sale. They are reduced to NT100 dollars for each.

Part I、聽力測驗

一、辨識句意：選出符合句子描述的圖片。(每題 1 分)

1. The lamp went out after Jack fixed it.
2. The two women are taking a picture of themselves.
3. Look. Both of the babies are crying. Let's feed them now.
4. Paul and Mary are going to have a date. They will meet outside the metro station instead of the movie theater.
5. Look. They are taking action to do something good to the environment.

二、基本問答：選出一個最適當的回應，完成對話。(每題 2 分)

6. Very few people know the writer, right?
7. Do you ever go abroad with your family?
8. I can't tell Sam from Jamie. They look like each other.
9. We planned to go on a picnic tomorrow morning, but what if it rains?
10. I broke Betty's favorite glass. Do you have a safe place for me to hide myself?

三、言談理解：請聽對話和問題，選出一個最適合的答案。(每題 2 分)

11. W: Your beach house is so beautiful.
M: Thanks. Make yourself at home.
W: There are so many seabirds around here. They are cute.
M: Are they? They make a lot of noise and take the food out of people's hands. If you hold an ice cream outside, they will come at you right away.

Q: Why doesn't the man like seabirds?

12. M: The old apartment has a good view of the sea.
W: I like the new one better because it has elevators.
M: But it's much more expensive.
W: Do you want to climb lots of stairs when you come home from work? I don't. Besides, we both have a job. It's OK to pay more for a better home.

Q: Which is more important to the woman when she chooses a house?

13. W: Daniel, do you still want the land? Mr. Wang says he can give us a better price for it.
M: No, I don't want to buy it anymore.
W: Oh? Is there a better one?
M: No. I just ran a check on Mr. Wang's land. There were factories before, so his land might not be good.
W: I see.

Q: What might Daniel do next?

14. M: Listen up, students. It's windy today, so the boat will be rocking a lot. You have to be careful, OK?
G: What should we do after we get onto the boat?
M: Find a seat and sit down quickly. It is dangerous to stand up or walk around. Also, during the trip, always hold onto something near you. I don't want any of you to fall into the sea.
G: Thank you, Mr. White. We will be careful.
Q: What didn't Mr. White say to his students?
15. M: Look! I bought some fried chicken. Let's enjoy it together.
W: Great!
M: Do we have any disposable gloves at home?
W: No, we don't.
M: But I need them to eat fried chicken because I don't want to get my hands dirty.
W: Just eat it with your hands. You can wash them after you finish it. Besides, disposable gloves are bad for the Earth.
M: OK. I think you're right.
Q: Why did the man want disposable gloves?
